Course Description	Cap (registrant capacity): 20 students This course aims at completing the elementary level of Japanese and acquiring more accurate and creative use of the language based on what they learnt previously, as well as improving their communication skills, through oral/written practice and activities. Students will learn more complex grammatical structures such as passive, causative, causative-passive, and basic honorific expressions, which helps students' smooth transition to a lower intermediate level. They will also learn and deepen their understanding of some aspects of Japanese culture simultaneously and make a presentation on their findings of the project which is conducted in group work format. Approximately 80% of class instruction and interaction will be conducted in Japanese with occasional English explanations when necessary.
Class plan based on course evaluation from previous academic year	Based on feedback from students in previous semesters, classes will be conducted in a flipped mode. Students are expected to preview vocabulary and grammar before the session so that they can concentrate on the actual use and practice during the session.
Course related to the instructor's practical experience (Summary of experience)	N/A
Learning Goals	At the end of this course, proficient students will be able to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• recognize and use accurately all hiragana/katakana and approximately 80 new kanji (total 320 kanji)</li> <li>• recognize and use vocabulary and grammar patterns required for the upper elementary level,</li> <li>• adjust level of politeness in vocabulary/expressions/sentence ending, and use honorific expressions according to whom they are talking to, situations, and message to be conveyed,</li> <li>• improve fluency/appropriateness and use strategies when communicating in Japanese,</li> <li>• deepen their understanding of Japanese culture,</li> <li>• understand and conform to norms in Japanese society.</li> </ul>
