Course Description	Based on what they have learnt before this course, students will learn mid- to upper-intermediate level (CEFR B1B2.1, JNPT N2 equivalent) situational/functional expressions, grammar, vocabulary and kanji, and students aim to improve their communication skills using these elements appropriately in this course. Students will also learn different speech levels determined by socio-cultural factors of Japanese societies. Furthermore, students will deepen their understanding of Japanese culture and society through discussions on specific cultural and social topics as well as their research topics. All the class instruction and interaction will be conducted in Japanese. This course is for students who have completed Intermediate Japanese 2 (JPNL220) / Japanese 6 (JPNL116) at iCLA or the equivalent level elsewhere. Students who have studied Japanese at other institutions are required to take the placement procedure to be qualified to take this course. Please refer to the information from the administration office regarding the placement procedure.
Class plan based on course evaluation from previous academic year	Based on the previous students' feedback, interactive tasks such as discussions have been found effective in enhancing students' language skills as well as an understanding of Japan, so such tasks will be included whenever applicable throughout the semester.
Course related to the instructor's practical experience (Summary of experience)	N/A
Learning Goals	At the end of this course, proficient students are expected to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • understand the main ideas of complex text on both concrete and abstract topics, including technical discussions in their field of specialisation, • interact with a degree of fluency and spontaneity that makes regular interaction with native speakers quite possible without strain for either party, • produce clear, detailed text on a wide range of subjects and explain a viewpoint on a topical issue giving the advantages and disadvantages of various options, • continue one's quest to improve kanji skills, • set an individual research theme, search previous studies, make an individual research plan, and • conduct research, make a presentation of the research in class in Japanese, and create a website summarising the research and its findings.

iCLA Diploma Policy	DP1/DP2/DP3/DP4

iCLA Diploma Policy

(DP1) To Value Knowledge – Having high oral and written communication skills to be able to both comprehend and transfer knowledge

(DP2) To Be Able to Adapt to a Changing World – Having critical, creative, problem-solving, intercultural skills, global and independent mindset to adapt to a changing world

(DP4) To Act from a Sense of Personal and Social Responsibility – Having good ethical and moral values to make positive impacts in the world

Active Learning Methods	Discussion, group work, flipped class, etc.

Use of ICT in Class	This course will use various ICT tools in class, including LMS (UNIPA), Google Forms, Google Sheets and Google Sites.
Use of ICT outside Class	This course will use various ICT tools outside class, including LMS (UNIPA), Google Forms, Google Sheets and Google Sites. • Use of generative AI tools / automated translation tool - Students must disclose all assistance from proofreaders, which supervisors can specifically permit, and from any automated writing tools other than spell checkers, including ChatGPT and Google translation, etc. Simply presenting AI-generated work / auto-translated work as your own work without proper attribution is considered plagiarism. Also, the student must check the accuracy of these generated/translated works, learn the vocabulary and expression, compare it with their own writing, and analyse any differences. If the instructor thinks it is not the student's own writing, she will ask the student to meet her and answer questions about the texts the student submits. The instructor tested that the credibility of the reference list ChatGPT gives you is pretty low, and it is also the student's responsibility to check the credibility of the reference list.
Expected study hours outside class	All students in this course should preview and review the material thoroughly and are expected to study at least five hours outside of class meetings per week. It is expected that students learn grammar and kanji mostly in their own time so that students can use class time for more interactive tasks.
Feedback Methods	Feedback will be given in the class or sent via Google Forms/email in a timely manner.

Plagiarism Policy	Academic Honesty: Imaki-sensei will take the issue of academic honesty very seriously. All student's assessment tasks, including homework, should be their own work. If the student is unsure whether something constitutes a breach, it is their responsibility to consult with Imaki-sensei BEFORE submission. Any policy breaches, regardless of the circumstances, will be marked as 0 and addressed according to university policy. Please familiarise yourself with academic honesty policies in the iCLA students' handbook.
Other Additional Notes	Late Submission and Makeup Test <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Homework - Any late submission for homework will not be a part of the student's homework grades, but they will be given correction/feedback. If the homework is preparatory work for the following class and the student is absent, it will not be counted as completed homework. • Textbook test - Students may take the makeup test the following day if they miss the test day and only if they contact Imaki-sensei before the test is returned to the class. Please note that the maximum score for the makeup test is 90% of the original score. • Speaking test and research project submission (except final presentation) - Late speaking presentation/interview and research project submission will accrue a penalty of 5 percentage points per day. The late final presentation will not be accepted.
